

Councillor Code of Conduct

1. Honesty and integrity

A member must act honestly and with integrity in performing official functions.

2. Care and diligence

A member must act with reasonable care and diligence in performing official functions.

3. Courtesy

A member must act with courtesy towards other members, council staff, constituents, and members of the public.

4. Prohibition on bullying

A member must not bully another person in the course of performing official functions.

5. Conduct towards Council staff

A member must not direct, reprimand, or interfere in the management of council staff.

6. Respect for cultural diversity

A member must respect cultural diversity and must not therefore discriminate against others, or the opinions of others, on the grounds of their cultural background.

A member must act with respect for cultural beliefs and practices in relation to other members, council staff, electors and members of the public.

7. Conflict of interest

A member must, if possible, avoid conflict of interest between the member's private interests and official functions and responsibilities.

Where a conflict of interest exists, the member must comply with any statutory obligations of disclosure.

8. Respect for confidences

A member must respect the confidentiality of information obtained in confidence in the member's official capacity.

A member must not make improper use of confidential information obtained in an official capacity to gain a private benefit or to cause harm to another.

9. Gifts and benefits

A member must not solicit or encourage gifts or private benefits from any person who might have an interest in obtaining a benefit from council.

A member must not accept a gift from a person that is given in relation to the person's interest in obtaining a benefit from the council.

10. Accountability

A member must be prepared at all times to account for the member's performance as a member and the member's use of council resources.

11. Interests of municipality

A member must act in what the member genuinely believes to be the best interests of the shire.

In particular, a member must seek to ensure that the member's decisions and actions are based on an honest, reasonable, and properly informed judgment about what will best advance the best interests of the shire.

12. Training

A member must undertake relevant training in good faith.
